I submit herewith, for His Highness's kind perusal a collection of notes on certain medical institutions in Great Britain, and other matters, compiled by Dr. S. V. Ramaswami Iyengar, when he was on leave in England.

2. The Senior Surgeon is of opinion that his notes on the working of Tubercular hospitals and dispensaries are particularly interesting, and that his notes on medical examination of candidates for life insurance may be read with advantage by many of the local --- medical officers whose duties include such examination in connection with the State Life Insurance scheme. These notes will accordingly be printed and circulated to all officers to whom they may be useful.

3. If approved Dr. Ramaswami Iyengar will be informed that Government greatly appreciate the very useful manner in which he employed his time during his leave.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith copy of letter No. 195 dated 12-11-15, from Dr. S.V.Ramasawmy Iyengar enclosing certain notes that he took of the medical institutions in Great Britain during his stay there. These notes deal with the internal administration of 9 great hospitals in the metropolis; with the administration and working of Tuberculous hospitals and dispensaries in England and Scotland and with the medical examination of persons for life insurance.

2. Dr. Ramasawmy Iyengar has evidently spent much of his holiday time in studying the details of administration of the institutions he visited. His notes on the working of Tuberculous hospitals and dispensaries are particularly interesting- and his notes on medical examination of candidates for life insurance may be read with advantage by many of the local medical officers whose duties include such examination in connection with the State Life Insurance scheme.
